

Figure 2: Sum of above ground biomass (Mg) at each plot location in 2013. Nearby road, village, saw mill, and protected area locations are plotted to visualize the relationship between these variables and the amount of above ground biomass. Distance to roads, villages, the saw mill, and the protected area were all determined to be significant predictors of above ground biomass.